

The new legislation limiting sales/solicitation calls has had a wonderful effect. Our family used to get interrupted from our dinner with these calls almost every day and now it only happens a couple times a month. I would like to see this legislation of the telephone privacy law continue indefinitely.